

Under Dutch anti-money laundering laws, Revolut Bank UAB, acting through its Netherlands branch, is required to tell you about our requirement to collect and store a copy of your ID, a video of your image and a recording of your voice to identify you.

For your convenience, we set out more detail about this process below.

Responsible company:	Revolut Bank UAB (acting through its Netherlands branch)
Data we collect from you:	<ul> <li>A copy of the identity document you submit</li> <li>A video of your image</li> <li>A recording of your voice</li> </ul>
Our legal obligation to collect and store your data:	Identification of the customer as part of our customer due diligence requirements as prescribed by the Dutch Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act.
How we process your data:	We will compare facial scan data extracted from the photo in your identity document to facial scan data extracted from the video of your image to verify your identity.
	We will use your voice data to prevent fraud by confirming that you are a real, live person.
How this impacts you:	We will verify your identity and confirm that you are a real, live human to enable Revolut to provide you with financial products or services you have requested.
Why we process your data:	Revolut processes your data because it is substantially in the public interest to verify our customers' identities and prevent fraud on the basis of relevant Dutch anti-money laundering laws.
Your rights:	You have the right to access, rectify, delete your data, request data portability and oppose or limit the processing by sending an email to dpo@revolut.com .
Additional information:	Our Customer Privacy Notice contains detailed information about how Revolut collects, uses, protects and deletes your personal data. You:
	- were presented with a copy of this notice when you first opened your Revolut account
	- can access this notice at any time through the Revolut app or website.