Revolut

To best meet United Kingdom anti-money laundering laws, Revolut Ltd collects and stores a copy of your ID, a photograph and/or video of your image and a recording of your voice to:

- identify you
- confirm that you can use Revolut's services

For your convenience, we set out more detail about this process below.

Responsible company:	Revolut Ltd.
Data we collect from you:	 A copy of the identity document you submit A video and/or photograph of your image A recording of your voice
Our legal obligation to collect and store your data:	 The Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 Proceeds of Crime Act 2002
How we process your data:	We will compare facial scan data extracted from the photo in your identity document to facial scan data extracted from the video or photograph of your image to verify your identity and confirm that you can use Revolut's services. We will use your voice data to prevent fraud by confirming that you are a real, live person.
How this impacts you:	We will verify your identity and confirm that you are a real, live human who is eligible to use Revolut's services to enable Revolut to provide you with financial products or services you have requested.
Why we process your data:	Revolut processes your data because it is substantially in the public interest to ascertain and verify your identity and prevent fraud on the basis of relevant United Kingdom anti-money laundering laws.
Your rights:	You have the right to access, rectify, delete your data, request data portability and oppose or limit the processing by sending an email to dpo@revolut.com .

Revolut

Additional information:	Our Customer Privacy Notice contains detailed information about how Revolut collects, uses, protects and deletes your personal data. You:
	 were presented with a copy of this notice when you first opened your Revolut account can access this notice at any time through the Revolut app or website.