

Revolut

To best meet Belgian anti-money laundering laws, Revolut Bank UAB, acting through its Belgian branch, is required to get your permission to collect and store a copy of your ID, a photograph and/or video of your image and a recording of your voice to:

- identify you
- confirm that you may use Revolut's services

For your convenience, we set out more detail about this process below.

Responsible company:	Revolut Bank UAB (Belgian branch)
Data we collect from you:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- A copy of the identity document you submit- A video and/or photograph of your image- A recording of your voice
Our legal obligation to collect and store your data:	Identification of the client according to Articles 26-29 of the Law of September 18, 2017 on the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing and Restriction of the Use of Cash (' 2017 Law ').
How we process your data:	We will compare facial scan data extracted from the photo in your identity document to facial scan data extracted from the video or photograph of your image to verify your identity and confirm that you can use Revolut's services. We will use your voice data to prevent fraud by confirming that you are a real, live person.
How this impacts you:	We will verify your identity and confirm that you are a real, live human who is eligible to use Revolut's services to enable Revolut to provide you with financial products or services you have requested.
Why we process your data:	Revolut processes your data to ascertain and verify your identity to meet our obligations under the 2017 Law.
Your rights:	You have the right to request access, rectification, erasure of your data, request data portability and oppose or limit the processing, including asking Revolut to conduct these checks by an alternative method by sending an email to dpo@revolut.com .

Additional information:

Our Customer Privacy Notice contains detailed information about how Revolut collects, uses, protects and deletes your personal data, including the biometric data we collect about you.

You:

- were presented with a copy of this notice when you first opened your Revolut account
- can access this notice at any time through the Revolut app or website.