

Revolut Business Terms

Revolut is changing our card issuer and bank partner to Lead Bank effective later this year.

You'll still be able to use the Revolut services as normal, but the transition means that your Revolut card will be subject to new Revolut Business Terms for the Lead Bank Program. After the transition, your card issuer will no longer be Metropolitan Commercial Bank (MCB) and the Business Terms for the MCB Program will no longer apply.

To use Revolut after the transition to Lead Bank, you must agree to the Lead Bank Business Terms below. Please contact Customer Support via in-app chat if you have questions about these planned changes.

The applicable Business Terms are outlined below:

Revolut Business Terms (MCB Program)	Revolut Business Terms (Lead Bank Program)
Business Terms (MCB Program)	Business Terms (Lead Bank Program)

If you have agreed to the Business Terms for the MCB Program, it will expire with the launch of the Lead Bank Program later this year.
