

If you'd just like to speak to someone about an issue that's concerning you, please contact us through the Revolut app. We can usually settle matters quickly through the app. You'll probably need to give us the information below.

Reporting fraud: To report fraud, please contact our fraud specialists by following this link. Please be aware that the link is only for Revolut customers (if you are not a Revolut customer you can report fraud through your bank).

How to make a complaint

If you prefer you can make your complaint using our online form. Or you can email us at formalcomplaints@revolut.com.

You'll need to tell us:

- your name and surname;
- the phone number and email address associated with your account;
- what the issue is;
- when the problem arose; and
- how you'd like us to put the matter right.

We'll look into your complaint and respond to you by email. We will communicate with you in English or Maltese, unless we tell you otherwise.

Irrespective of the above, you always have the right to approach the out of court dispute resolution authorities mentioned below in relation to any complaint about our service. You also have the right to apply to any competent court if you think we have breached the law.

If you're unhappy with our service, we'll try to put things right

We always do our best, but we realise that things sometimes go wrong. If you have a complaint, please contact us. We will accept and consider any complaint sent by you to us. Our final response to your complaint, or a letter explaining why the final response has not been completed, will be provided to you within 15 business days after your complaint has been made, and in exceptional circumstances, within 35 business days (and we will let you know if this is the case).

Out of court dispute resolution authority for complaints related to financial services

For consumers (non-business customers): If you are unhappy with how we have dealt with your complaint, you can refer it to the Bank of Lithuania within 1 (one) year of the date you sent us your complaint. In this case the Bank of Lithuania would act as out of court dispute resolution authority dealing with disputes between consumers and financial service providers.

Their address is: 4 Totoriu str, LT-01121 Vilnius/ Totorių g. 4, LT-01121 Vilnius, the Republic of Lithuania. You can find more information on their website.

Should you wish to have a possibility to apply to the Bank of Lithuania as to the out of court dispute resolution authority, then you shall make your complaint to us within 3 (three) months from the day that you found out or should have found out about the alleged violation of your rights or legitimate interests arising from agreement with us. You can also file a complaint to the respective out-of-court dispute resolution authorities that handle consumers' complaints in your country in relation to the financial services provided by us. The list of such authorities can be found here.

Examination of the complaint at the Bank of Lithuania is free of charge.

The out of court dispute resolution authority for consumer disputes not related to Bank of Lithuania competences is the State Consumer Rights Protection Authority.

Their address is: A. Goštauto g. 12, 01108 Vilnius, the Republic of Lithuania. You can find more information on their website. You can also rely on the mandatory consumer protection rules of the country where you live.

If you are a business customer and you are unhappy with how we have dealt with your complaint, you have the right to apply to any competent court if you think we have breached the law.

Out of court dispute resolution authority for complaints related to processing of personal data

You have the right to make a complaint to the State Data Protection Inspectorate (SDPI), the Lithuanian supervisory authority for data protection issues.

Their address is: L. Sapiegos str. 17, 10312, Vilnius, the Republic of Lithuania; e-mail: ada@ada.lt.

You can find more information on their website.
