- A fee applies for card transfers. This means payments directed to a supported non-Revolut card number, made using the Revolut app. This fee will be calculated in real time and shown to you in the Revolut app before you confirm the payment. Pay All Fees feature

Exchange

Whenever you make an exchange using Revolut within your plan’s exchange limit:

- You get the Revolut exchange rate;
- We add an exchange fee (if one applies); and
- Where possible, we will tell you the total cost before you make the exchange.

This pricing applies to exchanges in money currencies. We’ve explained it in more detail below.

If you exceed your plan’s exchange limit, you will be charged a fair usage fee on the additional amount. These limits are:

- Standard: Exchange limit of EUR 1,000 per month. Fair usage fee of 0.5% applies to any additional exchange.
- Plus: Exchange limit of EUR 3,000 per month. Fair usage fee of 0.5% applies to any additional exchange.
- Premium, Metal and Ultra: No exchange limit. No fair usage fee.

Where possible, the rate, any fee and the total cost will be shown to you in the Revolut app before you make an exchange. You’ll be able to take a look, compare it against our competitors, and decide if you like the total cost or not - we think you will like it. The only exception, where it is not possible to show you the total cost in advance, is when you make a card purchase that requires an exchange to take place in real time (for example, you make a purchase in USD, but you do not have a USD balance, meaning we need to perform the conversion in real time for you). However, after the transaction, you will be able to view the breakdown of the total cost within the Revolut app.

Exchanging money currencies

Whenever you make a money currency exchange using Revolut, we use our Revolut exchange rate, add a fee (if one applies), and where possible show you the total cost. We use our own Revolut exchange rate for money currency exchanges. This rate is set by us. It is a variable exchange rate and is constantly changing. This means that the money currency buy and sell rates are determined based on data feeds from a range of independent sources, as well as the amount of the transaction. You can view the currency exchange rate on our website or in-app.

Exchange rates will be the same whether it's done as an in-app exchange, an exchange for a transfer, or an exchange for a payment.

The fee we charge (if one applies) is an exchange fee. This is a variable fee (which means it is constantly changing) depending on the parameters of your exchange (like what you are exchanging and when). You can see what this fee is in the app. No fees apply if you make a money currency exchange on weekdays (between 6pm New York time on Sunday and 5pm New York time on Friday) and you are within your plan's exchange limit. If you make an exchange on weekends (between 5pm New York time on Friday and 6pm New York time on Sunday) a 1% fee applies. This fee is applied regardless of your plan.

You can also see what this fee is in the app.

Remember, your money currency exchanges count towards your exchange fair usage limit if you are a Standard or Plus customer (but not if you're a Premium, Metal or Ultra customer).

Please see our FAQ for more information about the money currency exchange, Revolut exchange rate and exchange fee.

Revolut Pro Account

If you have a Revolut Pro account, the below fees apply in relation to your use of your Revolut Pro account and any services available to you as a Revolut Pro customer like the payment processing product. Please see the Revolut Pro Account terms (which we call the "Pro Terms") and the Payment Processing Services Agreement (which we call the "Payment Processing Terms") for more information about the services these fees relate to.

Revolut Pro Card

- If you have a Revolut Pro account and order a Revolut Pro card, we'll show you what fee applies for the card before you order your card in the Revolut app (and a delivery fee also applies - we'll tell you what fee applies before you order your card in the Revolut app). Your Revolut Pro Card does not count towards the card limit on your Personal plan.

Merchant Chargebacks

If one of your customers disputes a transaction, they can raise a 'chargeback' request. For example, they may do so if they allege a transaction was fraudulent or a product was counterfeit or not delivered. If the chargeback is successful, the transaction will be refunded, but you'll be charged a chargeback fee. The chargeback fee depends on the currency of the original transaction, as set out below. You may be able to challenge the chargeback request.

There is more information about disputes and chargebacks in our Payment Processing Services Agreement.

The amount of the chargeback fee depends on the currency of the original transaction. If you provide evidence that the transaction has been legitimate and you delivered products or services according to the agreement with the customer, the issuer bank might revert the chargeback and you will also get the chargeback fee reverted back to your Revolut Pro account.

The only time you will pay more is if you exceed your plan's exchange limit. If you exceed this limit, you will be charged a fair usage fee on the additional amount. These limits are:

- Standard and Plus: Exchange limit of EUR 1,000 per month. Fair usage fee of 0.5% applies to any additional exchange.
- Premium, Metal and Ultra: No exchange limit. No fair usage fee.

Where possible, the rate, any fee and the total cost will be shown to you in the app before you make an exchange. You'll be able to take a look, compare it against our competitors, and decide if you like the total cost or not - we think you will like it. The only exception, where it is not possible to show you the total cost in advance, is when you make a card purchase that requires an exchange to take place in real time (for example, you make a purchase in USD, but you do not have a USD balance, meaning we need to perform the conversion in real time for you). However, after the transaction, you will be able to view the breakdown of the total cost within the app.

Exchanging money currencies

Whenever you make a money currency exchange using Revolut, we use our Revolut exchange rate, add a fee (if one applies), and where possible show you the total cost. We use our own Revolut exchange rate for money currency exchanges. This rate is set by us. It is a variable exchange rate and is constantly changing. This means that the money currency buy and sell rates are determined based on data feeds from a range of independent sources, as well as the amount of the transaction. You can view the currency exchange rate on our website or in-app.

Exchange rates will be the same whether it's done as an in-app exchange, an exchange for a transfer, or an exchange for a payment.

The fee we charge (if one applies) is an exchange fee. This is a variable fee (which means it is constantly changing) depending on the parameters of your exchange (like what you are exchanging and when). You can see what this fee is in the app. No fees apply if you make a money currency exchange on weekdays (between 6pm New York time on Sunday and 5pm New York time on Friday) and you are within your plan's exchange limit. If you make an exchange on weekends (between 5pm New York time on Friday and 6pm New York time on Sunday) a 1% fee applies. This fee is applied regardless of your plan.

You can also see what this fee is in the app.

Remember, your money currency exchanges count towards your exchange fair usage limit if you are a Standard or Plus customer (but not if you're a Premium, Metal or Ultra customer).

Please see our FAQs for more information about the money currency exchange, Revolut exchange rate and exchange fee.

Merchant Chargebacks

If one of your customers disputes a transaction, they can raise a 'chargeback' request. For example, they may do so if they allege a transaction was fraudulent or a product was counterfeit or not delivered. If the chargeback is successful, the transaction will be refunded, but you'll be charged a chargeback fee. The chargeback fee depends on the currency of the original transaction, as set out below. You may be able to challenge the chargeback request.

There is more information about disputes and chargebacks in our Payment Processing Services Agreement.

The amount of the chargeback fee depends on the currency of the original transaction. If you provide evidence that the transaction has been legitimate and you delivered products or services according to the agreement with the customer, the issuer bank might revert the chargeback and you will also get the chargeback fee reverted back to your Revolut Pro account.
