

Revolut Personal Terms

Revolut is changing our card issuer and bank partner to Lead Bank effective later this year.

You'll still be able to use the Revolut services as normal, but the transition means that your Revolut card will be subject to new Revolut Personal Terms for the Lead Bank Program. After the transition, your card issuer will no longer be Metropolitan Commercial Bank (MCB) and the Personal Terms for the MCB Program will no longer apply.

To use Revolut after the transition to Lead Bank, you must agree to the Personal Terms for the Lead Bank Program below. Please contact Customer Support via in-app chat if you have questions about these planned changes.

Personal Terms
Personal Terms (Lead Bank Program)

If you have agreed to the Personal Terms for the MCB Program, it will expire with the launch of the Lead Bank Program later this year. To view the Personal Terms for the MCB Program, click here.