2. Acquisition of Personal Information etc.

The Company shall acquire Personal Information etc. in a lawful and fair manner and only to the extent necessary for the provision of its services. The Company shall establish a system to effectively manage and control Personal Information etc. it owns. In addition, the Company shall not acquire sensitive information except for certain exceptions such as when required by laws and regulations (including the Guidelines for the Protection of Personal Information in the Financial Sector).

3. Use of Personal Information etc. and Purpose of Use

The Company shall use Personal Information etc. within the scope of the purpose of use as published or notified when it is so obtained or specified in advance and will use it properly only to the extent necessary for the execution of our business as permitted by law and regulation and shall not use it for any other purposes. Specific purposes of use are as follows.

Purposes of Use

1. To conduct KYC (know-your-customer) procedures;
2. To offer services on our platform, such as transferring Users' funds to Revolut accounts, money exchange, money transfer, making refunds to Users, and the like;
3. To provide answers to, or respond to inquiries or consultations by, Users;
4. To introduce and publicise to the Users the services of the Company and the Revolut Ltd and its subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter collectively or individually referred to as the "Group") or a third party partner;
5. To provide the Users with the services of a third party partner that we have introduced (including services provided through Revolut or jointly by Revolut and the partner);
6. To monitor and analyse how Revolut services are used for quality purposes;
7. To conduct market research with respect to products and services of the Company and the Group and to research and develop financial products and services by data analysis and questionnaire, etc.;
8. To provide maintenance and support for the services of the Company and the Group;
9. To notify changes or updates of rules, agreements, regulations, guidelines, risk factors, policies, warnings and other rules (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Rules") related to the services of the Company and the Group;
10. To protect the Users from fraudulent transactions and other unauthorized activities;
11. For the exercise of rights or fulfillment of obligations by the Company toward the Users, or for the exercise of rights or fulfillment of obligations by the Users toward the Company;
12. To properly carry out entrusted operations when the Company has been commissioned by other businesses to handle all or part of personal information processing;
13. To comply with laws and regulations regarding account utilisation by the Users (including responding to enquiries on and drafting and submitting to suspicious transaction reports to relevant authorities);
14. To produce backup data necessary to provide the Revolut services;

16. To conduct internal audits for the Company or the Group;
17. To contact users in case of emergency;
18. To perform work incidental to the above mentioned purposes and offer other services permitted to funds transfer service providers (including any potential business in future), and produce relevant legal and operational records; and
19. Any other reason as required by laws and regulations (including submission of information or reports as required by relevant authorities of the Company and the Group).

Notwithstanding the purposes mentioned above, Individual Number and other Specific Personal Information are used only to the extent permitted by the My Number Act (including the preparation of legal documents related to overseas remittance transactions, the preparation of legal documents related to bullion transactions, and other uses) with appropriate security measures and system, which Revolut shall establish and maintain. In addition, notwithstanding the purpose mentioned above, the Company will not use Pseudonymously Processed Information to match it with other information for the purpose of identifying the person pertaining to the original Personal Information or to contact the Users.

Besides, the Company will not use sensitive information except for certain exceptions such as when required by laws and regulations (including the Guidelines for the Protection of Personal Information in the Financial Sector).

4. Changing the Purposes of Use

The Company may change the Purposes of Use to the extent deemed relevant and reasonable and the Company shall notify or make an announcement to the Users when it makes changes.

5. Restrictions on Use of Personal Information etc.

Except where permitted by the PIP Act and other laws and regulations (including the cases specified below), the Company shall not use Personal Information etc. outside of the scope as required to achieve the Purposes of Use, without obtaining User's consent.

- When required or permitted by laws or regulations;

- When necessary to protect life, body or property of an individual, and it is difficult to obtain User's consent;
- Where necessary to address public health or sound development of children, and it is difficult to obtain User's consent; and
- When necessary to cooperate with a government institution, local government, or an individual or entity retained thereby to perform duties or other execution set forth in law or regulation, there is a risk that obtaining the User's consent would hamper the due performance of such matters.
- When Personal Data is provided to an academic research institution, etc., and said academic research institution, etc. needs to handle said Personal Data for academic research purposes (including cases where part of the purpose of handling said Personal Data is for academic research purposes, and excluding cases where there is a risk of unjustified infringement of the rights and interests of individuals).

6. Joint use of Personal Data among the Group

The Company may jointly use Personal Data of Users (including Personal Data that is Pseudonymously Processed Information; hereinafter the same). However, this shall not apply to cases where the consent of Users is required by laws or regulations.

1) The categories of the jointly utilised Personal Data

All Personal Data held by the Company

2) The scope of jointly utilising companies

- Revolut Securities Japan, Inc.
- Revolut Ltd (United Kingdom)
- Revolut Bank UAB (Lithuania)
- Revolut Technologies Inc.
- Revolut Payments Australia Pty Ltd
- Revolut Technologies Singapore Pte. Ltd.
- Other subsidiaries and affiliates of Revolut Ltd

3) Purpose of Use

The Company will jointly use the Personal Data within the scope of the Purposes of Use described in 3. above.

4) Name, address and representative of the company responsible for the management of Personal Data

The Company is responsible for the management of Personal Data it jointly uses. For the address and representative of the Company, please refer to 1. above.

7. Outsourcing

To the extent necessary to achieve the Purposes of Use, the Company wholly or partly outsources its handling of Personal Data to a third party. The Company chooses as external vendors (including or subcontractors; hereinafter the same) entities which handle Personal Data pursuant to all applicable laws and regulations of Japan and other relevant jurisdictions. Such appointments are within the scope of the Purposes of Use. Upon entering into outsourcing agreements, the Company agrees to the terms of handling Personal Data with such vendors and appropriately oversight their operation.

8. Provision of Personal Data to Third Parties

Except in the case of joint use or outsourcing as described above, the Company, in principle, shall not provide Personal Data to any third party. However, where permitted by laws and regulations or consent of the Users have been obtained to provide the Revolut services, the Company may provide Personal Data to third parties provided that they comply with applicable laws and regulations. Individual Numbers will be provided to third parties only when permitted by laws and regulations. Sensitive information will not be provided to third parties, except for certain exceptions such as when required by laws and regulations (including the Guidelines for the Protection of Personal Information in the Financial Sector).

The Company may jointly use Personal Data with a third party in a foreign country as described in 6. above, and also wholly or partly outsources Personal Data handling operations to a third party in a foreign country. If Users would like to request information on the measures necessary to ensure the continuous implementation of equivalent measures by a third party, as stipulated in Article 28, Paragraph 3 of the PIP Act, regarding a third party in a foreign country (excluding those prescribed by rules of the Personal Information Protection Commission as a foreign country establishing a personal information protection system recognized to have equivalent standards to that in Japan in regard to the protection of an individual's rights and interests) to whom our Personal Data is provided, please contact the inquiry desk in 11. below.

The Company may provide limited information about a User (such as the full name, profile picture and the Revolut plan the User is on) to another User. Each User can change the type of information to be provided to other Users through settings.

9. Privacy policies for specific services

Specific Revolut products, services, or processes User uses may have standalone privacy notices. Here are some examples:

- Revolut Messenger Privacy Policy
- Privacy Policy on REVOLUT for kids and Teens (6 - 17)

10. Click to Pay

The provisions of this section shall apply to cardholders who have consented to the use of Click to Pay, as provided by Visa or Mastercard.

Personal data (including your name, email address, phone number, billing address and other card details) provided by the cardholder will be provided to Visa Worldwide Pte. Ltd. ("Visa") or Mastercard International Incorporated ("Mastercard") which operates the respective Click to Pay service network, for the purpose of providing the respective Click to Pay service to cardholders, depending on the card brand you are using.

Personal information will be provided to Click to Pay participating merchants, both within and outside Japan, for the purpose of providing the Click to Pay service to cardholders.

At the time the cardholder gives consent to these terms and the privacy policy, it is not possible to specify the countries or regions to which personal data will be transferred, as it is undetermined in which countries or regions the cardholder will conduct transactions. In addition, since it is undetermined at the time of consent which merchants the cardholder will transact with in the future, it is not possible to identify the recipients of the cardholder's personal data or to provide information regarding the data security measures implemented by such third parties. However, Visa or Mastercard seeks to ensure appropriate security measures by entering into data protection agreements with participating merchants.

For more information, on how personal data is handled in Click to Pay, please see below:

- Mastercard's Click to Pay Privacy Notice (for Mastercard cardholders)
- our Click to Pay Cardholder Notice \(Visa\) (for Visa cardholders)

11. Management of Personal Data etc.

- The Company implements appropriate safety measures to keep Users' Personal Data etc. accurate and up-to-date.
- The Company implements appropriate measures to prevent unauthorized access such as minimizing access to Users' Personal Data etc.
- To prevent loss, destruction, falsification and leakage of Personal Data etc., the Company implements appropriate security measures including countermeasures for unauthorized access and computer viruses and establishes and upgrades cybersecurity.
- The Company limits the departments that handle Users' Personal Data etc. and grants minimum access in accordance with the Purposes of Use.
- The Company oversees the operation of external vendors handling Personal Data etc. as needed to ensure the same level of safety measures are implemented.

12. Disclosure/Correction etc./Suspension of Usage/Deletion Based on Request from User

Where a User makes a request for disclosure, correction etc., suspension of use, deletion or suspension of provision to third parties of his/her Personal Data etc., or asks the Company whether it holds his/her Personal Data etc., the Company shall, upon verification of the identity of the requester, respond in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Company, unless there are special or regulatory reasons not to do so.
