1. Introduction

This privacy notice (Notice) sets out how Revolut Payments Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 634 823 180) (Revolut, we, us and our) handles your personal information when you use Revolut Pay Checkout.

This information set out in this Notice applies in addition to the information set out in our Privacy Policy.

If you have concerns about how we use your personal information, you can contact us at dpo@revolut.com.

2. What is Revolut Pay Checkout?

Revolut Pay Checkout is a service offered by us that enables users (Customer, you) to save personal information and payment details for use at participating merchants when completing a transaction.

Revolut Pay Checkout is not a payment service. You must have a separate payment method (for example, a debit or credit card) in order to use Revolut Pay Checkout when making an online payment.

3. What personal information do you collect about me?

If you sign up to use Revolut Pay Checkout and do not hold a Revolut account with us, we will collect your:

- name;
- date of birth;

- phone number;
- email address;
- shipping address;
- preferred shipping method;
- billing address; and
- credit/debit card details (including card number, expiry date and CVV).

If you have a Revolut account, you can also choose to add external (non-Revolut) cards to your Revolut Pay Checkout profile. We will automatically add any card(s) you have previously used to top up your Revolut account to your Revolut Pay Checkout profile. However, you can delete this at any time by clicking on the bin icon displayed next to each payment method in your Revolut Pay Checkout profile.

We will usually collect the personal data described above from you directly. However, we may also receive certain information from the relevant merchant. This will depend on how the relevant merchant has chosen to integrate Revolut Pay Checkout into their website.

We may also collect certain technical details regarding your device (including your device details, IP address, service provider, location, date and time, browser and language) if you ask us to remember your device to log you in to Revolut Pay Checkout automatically for any future purchases you wish to make using Revolut Pay Checkout.
