Merchant Chargeback Fees

If a customer disputes a transaction and initiates a chargeback (e.g. for suspected fraud or non-delivery), the full transaction amount may be refunded, and you may be charged a chargeback fee.

The chargeback fee depends on the currency of the original transaction, as set out below.

You may be able to challenge a chargeback by providing evidence that the transaction was legitimate and that you delivered the goods or services as agreed with the customer. If the chargeback is reversed by the issuer bank, the chargeback fee will also be refunded to your Revolut Pro account.

You can find more information about disputes and chargebacks in the Payment Processing Services Agreement.
