1. Introduction

We're committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. We will:

- always keep your personal data safe and private
- never sell your personal data
- allow you to manage your marketing choices at any time

This privacy notice sets out how we will handle your personal data when you use our platform, our services or otherwise interact with us in relation to Revolut restaurant services ('Revolut Restaurant').

This notice only applies to personal data only.

2. About us and our role

Revolut Restaurant is a platform that enables you to discover restaurants, make reservations, earn rewards and, where available, pay for your dining experience through Revolut. Revolut Restaurant involves both Revolut and participating restaurants ('Restaurants').

Depending on the service you use, different Revolut entities and Restaurants may be responsible for your personal data.

Revolut Ltd acts as data controller for certain restaurant services, including restaurant discovery, reservations, reservation management, recommendations, RevPoints, magic tags ('Magic Tags') and related hospitality features.

- Revolut Ltd is a British company having its registered address at 30 South Colonnade, London, E14 5HX.

Revolut Bank UAB (if you are located in the EEA territory) or Revolut Bank UK (if you are located in the UK) acts as data controller for Payment Services available through Revolut Restaurant, including reservation deposits, booking guarantees, bill payments and Pay & Walk functionality.

- Revolut Bank UK is a British company having its registered address at 30 South Colonnade, London, E14 5HX.
- Revolut Bank UAB is a Lithuanian company having its registered address at Konstitucijos pr. 21B, Vilnius, Lithuania.

When you make a reservation, the Restaurant will also receive personal data necessary to manage your booking and provide its services. The Restaurant acts as an independent controller of that personal data and is responsible for explaining how it uses your information.

Where Revolut provides technology, hosting, communications or CRM tools to Restaurants, Revolut may process personal data on the Restaurant's behalf and in accordance with its instructions. In these circumstances, Revolut acts as a data processor. This includes any data collection of dietary preferences of the user.

If you have concerns about how we use your personal data, you can contact us at dpo@revolut.com.

3. What personal data do you collect about me?

The personal data we collect depends on how you use Revolut Restaurant and whether Revolut is acting as a controller or processor of your personal data.

A. Personal data Revolut collects as a controller

Where Revolut acts as a controller, we may process:

- Identity and contact information, such as your name, email address and phone number.
- Reservation information, including booking details, reservation history, dining preferences and special requests.
- Revolut account information, such as your country of residence, plan type and other information necessary to provide Restaurant Services.
- Payment information, including transaction references, payment status and information necessary to process deposits, booking guarantees, bill payments and Pay & Walk functionality.
- Loyalty and rewards information, including your use of RevPoints and other dining-related rewards.
- Technical and usage information, such as device information, IP address and information about how you use Revolut Restaurant.
- Magic Tags information. Magic Tags are high-level customer insights that help personalise your dining experience. These Magic Tags are the following: Revolut VIP, top income, tourist, local, foodie, and business. If you choose to enable Magic Tags, Revolut may use information already available within the Revolut ecosystem, such as your plan type, financial account data, country, dining habits, and loyalty programme participation, to generate these insights. These highlevel insights will be then shared with the corresponding Restaurant. You can withdraw your consent for Magic Tags at any time in the Revolut app, by deactivating the respective toggle in your Privacy Settings.

B. Personal data Revolut collects as a processor on behalf of Restaurants

Where Revolut provides reservation management, CRM, communications or other services to Restaurants, we process personal data on their behalf and in accordance with their instructions. This may include:

- Reservation information, including booking details, reservation history and guest notes.
- Customer relationship management information, such as communication preferences and marketing consents provided to the Restaurant.
- Dining preferences, special requests and other information provided in connection with a reservation.
- Dietary requirements and allergy information, which may constitute special category data under applicable data protection laws. This information is processed solely to facilitate your reservation and help the Restaurant accommodate your needs.

4. How do you use my personal data?

We have explained the purposes for which we use your personal data, as well as our lawful bases for doing so, in the table below.

What we use your personal data for	Our legal basis for using your personal data
Providing restaurant services, including restaurant discovery, reservations and related features	Performance of a contract
Processing deposits, booking guarantees, bill payments and Pay & Walk functionality	Performance of a contract
Operating RevPoints and other loyalty features	Performance of a contract
Generating and sharing Magic Tags	Consent
Providing personalised recommendations and offers	Legitimate interests and, where required, consent
Preventing fraud, maintaining security and protecting our services	Legal obligation and legitimate interests
Improving Revolut Restaurant and developing new products and features	Legitimate interests

Where Revolut acts as a processor on behalf of a Restaurant, we process personal data solely in accordance with the Restaurant's instructions. This may include reservation management, customer relationship management, guest communications, marketing preferences, dining preferences, dietary requirements (where you chose to provide it) and other information necessary for the Restaurant to provide its services. The Restaurant acts as an independent controller for these processing activities.

5. Do we share your personal data with anyone else?

Your personal data may be shared with:

- Restaurants, as far as you decide to book a table at the specific Restaurant;
- service providers that help operate the service, such as cloud hosting, communications, analytics, and customer support providers;
- other Revolut group entities, where necessary to provide the service or comply with legal obligations; and
- regulators, law enforcement authorities, and other competent authorities, where required by law.

6. How long will your personal data be kept for?

Your personal data will be kept for as long as necessary to achieve the relevant purposes for which they are processed or to comply with legal obligations.

7. Additional information

Please refer to the relevant sections of Revolut Customer Privacy Notice or the Restaurant's one for more information about:

- your rights as a data subject;
- your right to complain to your local data protection supervisory authority;
- international transfers of your personal data outside the United Kingdom or European Economic Area (as applicable); and
- how we protect your personal data.

If you have any questions or concerns about how we use your personal data, you can contact our Data Protection Officer at dpo@revolut.com.

8. Updates

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page.
