Exchange

Currency Exchange: Whenever you make a currency exchange in the Revolut app (except cryptocurrency exchanges), we'll use an exchange rate based on our market rate, which is based on foreign-exchange market rates. There is more information about our exchange rate in our Personal Terms and Business Terms. The rate we use to convert your money into cryptocurrency (and back) is based on the rate we get from our partner Exchanger; you can find out more information about our rates in our Cryptocurrency terms.

Premium Plan customers may exchange up to $10,000 in a given 30-day period before Currency Exchange Fair Usage Fees apply. After the $10,000 limit is reached, you will be assessed a fee of 0.5% on the transaction amount for currency exchanges. See Schedule A of the Cardholder Agreement for complete details.

Crypto Exchange

Up to $200,000: You can exchange up to $200,000 in crypto with our partner cryptocurrency provider, Apex Crypto, without crypto commission fees each month. We call this your crypto commission-free limit.

Above $200,000: You will be charged a crypto commission fee of 1.5% for Premium Plan customers.

Foreign Exchange

We charge a higher fee outside foreign-exchange-market hours because less currency is traded during these times. Foreign-exchange-market hours are all hours except 5:00pm on Friday to 6:00pm on Sunday, Eastern Time.

International Money Transfers and Non-USD Domestic Transfers

International Transfers are defined as a transaction in a currency other than U.S. dollars, whether within the U.S. or globally.

If you transfer funds to an external bank account in a country outside of the U.S., this is considered an "International Transfer".

If you transfer funds domestically in a currency other than USD, this is considered a "Non-USD Domestic Transfer".

The following limits and fees apply to International Transfers and Non-USD Domestic Transfers with your Revolut Premium plan:

- Premium Plan customers get a combined total of up to three (3) international transfers or non-USD domestic transfers of non-USD currency per month before incurring fees.
- International transfers to an external bank account in the same currency as the local currency of the recipient will cost 0.3% of the transfer amount, with a minimum cost of $0.30 and a maximum cost of $6 per transaction.
- International transfers to an external bank account in a different currency to the local currency of the recipient cost $4 if the payment is in US dollars, British Pounds, Euros, or Swiss Francs, or $6 if it's in another currency.
- Domestic transfers to an external bank account of non-USD currency cost $4 if the payment is in British Pounds, Euros, or Swiss Francs, or $6 if it's in another currency.
- If you make an international transfer or domestic transfer of non-USD currency which exceeds your monthly allowance you'll be charged in-line with the above-mentioned fees based on the details of your transaction.

See Schedule A of the Cardholder Agreement for complete details about the fees that apply to your Plan.

Please note that the beneficiary bank could also charge a fee to receive your transfer. When your money is in transit, it might be processed by an intermediary bank who might also deduct a handling fee. Therefore, the amount received might be less than the amount you sent. Intermediary bank fees may be applied even in the event of an unsuccessful transfer.
