These Terms commence on the day that Revolut confirms to you via the Revolut App that your Revolut Account has been opened and shall continue until terminated in accordance with clause 21 (Amendments to these Terms) and/or clause 22 (Termination).

Your Revolut Account allows you to perform Revolut transactions and access other services. Our service availability may differ based on your country/region. Your Revolut Account is not a bank or a payment account and does not store any form of monetary value (electronic or otherwise).

You can use your Revolut Account for any of the following services:

- Send money to a bank account (we call these "Bank Transfers");

Revolut may refuse to enter into a Revolut Transaction with you at any time and for any reason.

Revolut provides virtual receipts for Revolut Transactions. The Revolut Transaction details are also available on the Revolut App. Revolut will not and is under no obligation to provide you with a physical receipt or other written confirmation in connection with any Revolut Transaction.

Can I open a Revolut Account?

You must be 18 or over to open a Revolut Account and you will need to be a resident in any of the supported countries. The list of supported countries can be found here. You can get further information on the supported countries on the country specific web-pages.

When you ask us to open a Revolut Account, we or someone acting for us will ask for information about you and where the money you will remit through your account comes from. We do this for a number of reasons, including to meet our legal and regulatory requirements. Our Privacy Policy explains more about how we use your information for these and other purposes. When we have the information we need, we will open your Revolut Account.

You can't:

- open more than one Revolut Account;
- use the Revolut Account for business purposes;
- open a Revolut Account on someone else's behalf; or

This includes stolen cards and cards from certain countries that we may be prohibited from using for Revolut Transactions. If you are not able to add a certain Stored Card and/or External Account to your Revolut App, you will need to add another Stored Card and/or External Account which can be used for the Revolut Transactions. You can update your Stored Card and External Account details at any time within the Revolut App.

You have the option to add different Stored Card and External Account details to your Revolut App for the purposes of sending money and receiving money.

6. Verification of identity

You agree to cooperate with all requests made by us or any of our third party service providers on our behalf in connection with your Revolut Account, to identify or authenticate your identity or validate your funding sources or Revolut Transactions. This may include, but is not limited to, asking you for further information that will allow Revolut to reasonably identify you, including requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your phone number or payment instruments or verifying your information against third party databases or through other sources.

We reserve the right to close, suspend, or limit access to your Revolut Account and/or the Money Transfer Services in the event we are unable to obtain or verify such information or you do not comply with our requests for further information.

We may confidentially verify the information you provide us with or obtain information on you ourselves or through third parties from secure databases. By entering into these Terms, you confirm that you consent to us or a third party on our behalf carrying out such verifications.

You must ensure that the information on your Revolut Account is always accurate and up to date and if any of your details change, you need to notify us immediately. If at any time we believe that your information is outdated or inaccurate, we may contact you and request further information or request that you go through the verification process again. We shall not be liable for any losses arising out of your failure to maintain up to date information.

7. Instant Transfer

You can send money to other Revolut accounts. We call these sorts of transactions Instant Transfers. You can make an Instant Transfer to any Revolut user globally by choosing them as a recipient from the contacts list in the Revolut App and following the prompts. The recipient Revolut user will be notified and receive the transfer immediately. If you make an Instant Transfer, the money you are sending will be debited from your selected Stored Card.

Where applicable, you will need to enter the Counterparty's details (the 'unique identifier') on the Revolut App in order to request an Instant Transfer to that Counterparty. It is your responsibility to make sure that the Counterparty's unique identifier is entered correctly. Any error may result in the Instant Transfer being unsuccessful, delayed or the Instant Transfer being sent to the wrong recipient. We shall not be liable for any losses you incur from entering an incorrect unique identifier.

The "Counterparty" means the person you wish to send money to.

Please check the following information on the Revolut App, prior to confirming your request to enter into the Instant Transfer:

- the Counterparty's details;
- the amount and currency of the money you wish to send to the Counterparty; and

If funds you have sent by way of Instant Transfer have not been received by the Counterparty and are returned, we will return the funds to the funding source in the currency you used to make the transfer. Due to the difference in price for purchasing and selling currencies and/or fluctuations in currency exchange rates, the amount of money you receive back in these circumstances may be more or less than the amount you originally sent. Revolut is not liable for any losses you incur in this respect.

8. Bank Transfers

You can send money to a Counterparty's Bank Account from your selected Stored Card or your External Account. We call this a Revolut Bank Transfer. The money you send by Revolut Bank Transfer will be debited from your selected Stored Card or your External Account.

- the fees for the Revolut Bank Transfer (if any).

Where the request to enter into a Revolut Bank Transfer is received on a day which is not a business day or is received after 4.00 pm, Singapore time on a business day, we have the right to treat the request to enter into the Revolut Bank Transfer as having been received on the next business day.

A business day is a day other than a weekend or public holiday in Singapore.

We shall endeavour to ensure that we action the Revolut Bank Transfer as soon as is reasonably practicable, and in any event, within 3 business days for domestic bank transfers (where available) and 7 business days for cross border bank transfers.

Once the Revolut Bank Transfer has been completed, you will be able to view the completed Revolut Bank Transfer in your Revolut Transaction History.

If funds you have sent by way of Revolut Bank Transfer are not deposited in the Counterparty Bank Account and are returned to Revolut, we will return the funds to the funding source in the currency you used to make the transfer. Due to the difference in price for purchasing and selling currencies and/or fluctuations in currency exchange rates, the amount of money you receive back in these circumstances may be more or less than the amount you originally sent. Revolut is not liable for any losses you incur in this respect.

9. Card Transfers

You can send money to a Counterparty's Card Account from your selected Stored Card. We call this a Card Transfer. The money you send by Card Transfer will be debited from your Stored Card. If you make a Card Transfer to send money, the Counterparty will be identified by their card number instead of their bank account number.

To make a Card Transfer you will need to enter the Counterparty Card Account details on the Revolut App. The "Counterparty Card Account" means the debit card or credit card account of the Counterparty. It is your responsibility to make sure that the details of the Counterparty and the Counterparty Card Account (the 'unique identifiers') are entered correctly. Once the Card Transfer has been completed, you will be able to view the completed Card Transfer in your Revolut Transaction History.

If, for whatever reason, funds you have sent by way of Card Transfer are not deposited in the Counterparty Card Account and are returned to Revolut, we will return them to you in the currency you used to make the transfer. Due to the difference in price for purchasing and selling currencies and/or fluctuations in currency exchange rates, the amount of money you receive back in these circumstances may be more or less than the amount you originally sent. Revolut is not liable for any losses you incur in this respect.

10. Receiving money from other Revolut users

You can receive money from other Revolut users.

In order to receive money you must have registered the details of your External Account or Stored Card into which the money will be credited on the Revolut App.

You will need to provide the details of your selected External Account or Stored Card into which you wish to receive money to the Revolut user who is sending the money to you. It is your

Any error in information may result in the transfer being unsuccessful, delayed or the transfer being sent to the wrong recipient. We shall not be liable for any losses you incur from providing incorrect details of your selected External Account or Stored Card.

Once we receive the money on your behalf, we will send the payment to your selected External Account or Stored Card. We shall endeavour to ensure that we process any payments to your External Account as soon as is reasonably practicable, and in any event, within 3 business days for domestic bank transfers (where available) and 7 business days for cross border bank transfers. Payments to your Stored Card will be sent instantly and should arrive within 30 minutes.

When the transaction is completed, you will be able to review the completed remittance transaction in your Revolut Transaction History.

11. Currency conversion and exchange rates

If the currency of the Counterparty account is different to the currency of your External Account or Stored Card that you are using to make the Instant Transfer, Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer, then we shall convert the money using our exchange rates into the currency of the Counterparty account prior to sending the money to the Counterparty account.

You can only send Instant Transfers, Bank Transfers or Card Transfers in certain currencies. Usually this will be the currency which is available in the Counterparty's country or region, but could involve others. The available currencies are also subject to change from time to time without us being required to provide you with notice.

Any exchange fees we may apply to the exchange rate when you send a Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer involving a currency conversion, are set out in our Fees Page. If you send an Instant Transfer involving a currency conversion, we will not apply an exchange fee. In all cases, you will be able to check the exchange rate for the currency conversion and any exchange fee (if one applies) in the Revolut App prior to confirming the transaction. We may earn revenue from the exchange rate applied to a currency conversion and by instructing us to process an Instant Transfer, Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer, you agree to the application of the exchange rate calculated for that transaction. Revolut will not be responsible for any losses you incur as a result of the currency conversion.

The money that you receive (as the recipient in a transaction) will be converted into the currency of your selected External Account or Stored Card. We shall perform a currency conversion on behalf of the Revolut user sending the money to you and the money will be converted into the currency of your selected External Account or Stored Card. Revolut is not liable for any losses you incur in this respect.

12. Fees

Any fees that we may charge for the Money Transfer Services are set out in our Fees Page.

The fees we charge for any Bank Transfers or Card Transfers will be clearly shown on the Revolut App prior to your confirming the transaction. We will not charge any fees for Instant Transfers. We shall deduct any relevant fees from the External Account or Stored Card (as applicable) being used to fund the Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer.

We will provide you with notice of any changes to the fees in accordance with these Terms. It is your responsibility to stay informed and review these changes once we have provided you notice of a change to our fees.

We reserve the right to suspend your access to the Money Transfer Services if we are not paid any monies that you owe us on time.

13. Security

We would like to draw your attention to paragraph 3 of the e-Payments User Protection Guidelines issued by the MAS ("User Protection Guidelines"). All Revolut Transactions are processed by automated methods, and anyone who obtains access credentials to the Revolut App could use it to enter into Revolut Transactions without your permission. Although Revolut has systems in place to detect fraudulent activity, you are responsible for monitoring the activity of your Revolut Account. As noted in paragraph 3.8 of the User Protection Guidelines, if you notice any misuse, theft or unauthorised use of your mobile or mobile PIN or any other suspicious activity, you must contact the customer services team and if possible, enable the appropriate security features on the Revolut App. Where applicable, you may be required to provide all of the information set out in paragraph 3.9 of the User Protection Guidelines for the purposes of our review and investigation.

Where it is established that an Instant Transfer, Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer was not authorised by you, or was incorrectly executed by us (provided we can prove such incorrect execution has taken place) and you have notified us within 13 months of the date of the unauthorised or incorrectly executed Instant Transfer, Revolut Bank Transfer or Card Transfer unless the paragraph below applies, we shall refund the full amount to your original funding source (i.e. the External Account or Stored Card from which the funds had been debited).

You will remain liable for any obligations related to your Revolut Account even after it is closed.

21. Amendments to these Terms

These Terms may be amended unilaterally by us, by providing you with one month's notice. These changes will be deemed to have been accepted by you where you do not, before the proposed date of the entry into force of the changes, notify us to the contrary. If you do notify us to the contrary, your notification will be deemed to be a notice that you wish to close your Revolut Account and terminate these Terms on the date upon which the changes are to take effect.

Where an amendment to the Terms is required by law or relates to the addition of a new service, extra functionality to the existing Money Transfer Services, a reduction in the cost of the Money Transfer Services or any other change which neither reduces your rights nor increases your responsibilities, the amendment may be made without prior notice to you and shall be effective immediately.

22. Termination

Revolut, in its sole discretion, may terminate these Terms at any time, by giving you two months' notice. The termination of these Terms will not affect any of our rights or your obligations arising under these Terms.

You may terminate these terms at any time by providing us with one month's notice, such notice to be provided using the chat function on the Revolut App

Without prejudice to any rights that have accrued under these Terms, or any party's other rights or remedies, either party may at any time terminate these Terms with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:

- the other party repeatedly breaches any of the terms of these Terms in such a manner as to reasonably justify the opinion that its conduct is inconsistent with it having the intention or ability to give effect to the terms of these Terms;
- the other party is subject to a bankruptcy, insolvency, winding up or other similar event; and/or
